Welcome to Graduation Weekend at Walla Walla University.

We are delighted you are here.

Our faculty, staff, administrators, and members of the Board of Trustees join the Class of 2019 in wishing you a fulfilling visit to our campus.

Graduates have labored long and hard to reach an important milestone. Thank you for supporting them along the way and for joining in the celebration of their success.

God has been good to all of us and to Walla Walla University. With humble hearts we acknowledge many divine blessings. Your presence here is among them.

Welcome!

John K. McVay
President

Questions?
Office of the President
(509) 527-2121 | presidents.office@wallawalla.edu
(509) 527-2066 | deirdre.benwell@wallawalla.edu

For more information about Graduation Weekend and livestreamed services, visit our graduation web page at wallawalla.edu/grad.
Schedule of events

Thursday, June 13

Noon
Rehearsal luncheon
Rigby Hall Courtyard
President and Mrs. McVay and Cabinet members invite all graduates to lunch prior to Commencement rehearsal. In the event of inclement weather, watch for announcements of an alternate location.

1 p.m.
Commencement rehearsal
Centennial Green
Graduates practice for the Commencement ceremony and receive details about weekend activities, ordering photos, etc.

Friday, June 14

1 p.m.
Bachelor's Degree in Psychology Recognition
Heubach Chapel (University Church)
Dedication service to honor graduating psychology majors. Reception immediately following. Family and friends are welcome to attend.

6 p.m.
Engineering Senior Reception
Fellowship Hall (University Church)
Reception to recognize engineering graduates and for their families to meet engineering faculty.

8 p.m.
Consecration
University Church
Senior class presents the evening vespers program.

Following Consecration
Graduate Reception
Kellogg Hall
The Alumni and Parent Relations Office invites graduates, their families, and faculty and staff to a reception immediately following the Consecration service.

Sabbath, June 15

9:30 a.m.
FirstServe: Baccalaureate
University Church
FirstServe is an informal service featuring contemporary praise music. Brad Brown ’98, director of mission and spiritual care for Adventist Health in Paradise, California, will speak.

10:30 a.m.
Sabbath School
Consult the University Church bulletin (available at the door and online at www.church.org) for a list of Sabbath school options.

11:45 a.m.
Second Service: Baccalaureate
University Church
Second service is a traditional church service. Brad Brown ’98, director of mission and spiritual care for Adventist Health in Paradise, California, will speak.

3 p.m.
Teacher Dedication
Walla Walla Valley Academy Auditorium
Honors those graduating with degrees in elementary education, secondary certification, and master’s programs with certification.*

3:30 p.m.
Social Work and Sociology Pinning and Dedication Ceremony
Heubach Chapel (University Church)
Dedication service to honor bachelor of social work and sociology graduates. Reception immediately following.*

4 p.m.
Nurses’ Pinning
University Church
Ceremony to welcome graduating nurses into the nursing profession.*

5 p.m.
Theology Senior Dedication Service
Heubach Chapel (University Church)
Dedication service to honor graduating theology and religion majors.*

6 p.m.
Strawberry Dessert Reception
Fine Arts Center lawn
Senior class officers invite graduates and their families to enjoy strawberries and ice cream. In the event of inclement weather, the reception will be held in Kellogg Hall.

7 p.m.
Master’s Degree Hooding Ceremony
Walla Walla Valley Academy Auditorium
Family and friends of master’s degree candidates are invited to this celebration of achievement. Reception following.

8 p.m.
Evensong
University Church
Sunset service featuring organ music by Kraig Scott, professor of music, and the spoken word presented by Montgomery Buell.

Sunday, June 16

7:30 a.m.
Graduate group photographs
Kretschmar Hall lawn
Graduates gather to be photographed and then line up in marching order for the Commencement procession.

8:30 a.m.
Commencement
Centennial Green
Karl Haffner ’85, senior pastor of the Kettering Seventh-day Adventist Church and father of a graduating senior, will give the Commencement address.

There is no adequate alternative facility for Commencement in the event of inclement weather. If rain is forecast, please come prepared.

Seating is available. Up to eight seats may be reserved with at least one family representative present until 8 a.m., at which time all held seats will be available to anyone on a first-come, first-served basis. Please encourage all family members and friends to be seated at that time.

*All are welcome to attend.

---

Sign the belfry

Administration Building (fourth floor)

Graduates and alumni are invited to sign their names in the belfry during the following times:

Thursday: 8 a.m.–5 p.m., Friday: 8 a.m.–12 p.m., Sabbath: 6–7:30 p.m., Sunday: 11 a.m.–12:30 p.m.