Description: Walla Walla University’s School of Nursing seeks applications for a part-time clinical instructor for supervision of students in a junior Mental Health Nursing course. This course is the only nursing course where students study psychiatric/mental health disorders and chemical dependency specifically. A strong emphasis of this course is therapeutic communication and use of the self as a therapeutic instrument. Students administer medications, work with patients individually and in groups and complete individualized patient careplans. We are seeking a clinical instructor to supervise student caring for clients at the Unity Center. Days and times dependent on placements received.

Qualifications:
- Master’s Degree in Nursing or in progress with MSN required
- At least 3 years of nursing experience in Mental Health care
- Teaching experience preferred
- Experience at the Unity Center desirable
- Must have RN licensure in OR and WA by the time Autumn classes begin
- Good communication skills
- Able to work with students individually and in small groups
- Well organized with an air of confidence
- Able to work with all types of learners

Apply: Prospective candidates interested in the position are asked to submit the online faculty application which will request that a resume be attached.
