Job Title: Clinical Instructor – Part-time (College Place, WA campus)

Classification: Contract Employee – Part-time

Department/School: School of Nursing

Salary: Dependent on number of hours

Available: Starting Autumn, 2019

Description: Walla Walla University’s School of Nursing seeks applications for a part-time clinical instructor for beginning nursing students on the College Place, WA campus (main campus). This position could be up to 20 hours/week or as negotiated. This position includes clinical instruction in health care agencies and possibly also in the skills lab if desired.

The teaching responsibilities include:
- Fall – Clinical Instruction in Fundamentals of Nursing (Clinical all in skills lab)
- Winter – Clinical Instruction in Health Assessment and the Nursing Process (Clinical in long-term care facilities)
- Spring – Clinical Instruction in Pharmacology in Nursing (Clinical at Providence St. Mary’s Medical Center)
- Summer – No nursing courses are taught on the College Place campus

The primary focus of the sophomore level courses is to learn basic skills and begin to apply them to direct patient care. Prior to practicing skills in any agency, students must demonstrate safety and proficiency in the skills lab for key skills. The part-time faculty member will work under the supervision of the full-time faculty to demonstrate beginning skills, test student proficiency and evaluate student performance in the clinical setting and skills lab.

Qualifications:
- Master’s Degree in Nursing or enrolled in an MSN program
- At least 3 years of full-time nursing experience in acute care setting
- RN licensure in Washington
- Good communication skills
- Able to work with all types of learners individually and in small groups
- Well organized with an air of confidence

Apply: Prospective candidates interested in the position are asked to submit the online faculty application which will request that a resume be attached.

Questions: Kari Firestone, Associate Dean, School of Nursing
509-527-6249
Kari.Firestone@wallawalla.edu