Arabic - Lebanon

Walla Walla University is a member of the Adventist Colleges Abroad consortium. Prospective ACA students must have an overall cumulative GPA of 2.5; and completion of ENGL 121, 122, and a general studies math course. Academic credit taken in Italy will be granted as listed below. Applicants should consult with their major professors, the modern language department, and the Registrar prior to enrollment.

A minor in Arabic is offered through the Adventist Colleges Abroad affiliate program. Students must complete 28 quarter hours beyond the 100 level; 8 quarter hours must be upper-division. Approval of the academic advisor required

Note: Without prior language experience, students should plan to spend an entire school year in residence at the ACA school to develop proficiency in the chosen language. All course work for a minor in these languages must be completed while in residence at the ACA school. See the ACA advisor for more information.

Check the ACA bulletin for course descriptions and prerequisites.

*Courses will be evaluated based on content rather than course prefix
