FAMILY WEEKEND 2017
Schedule

Friday, October 20

8:00 am - Go to Class with your Student
Join your student in one or two of their favorite classes.
Faculty will plan for extra seats.

12:00 pm

1-4pm  Friday Ice Cream
Bright’s Candies, 11 E Main Street, Walla Walla. Show your WWU student ID and get ice cream for the whole family.

8:00 pm Welcome Home Vespers
Returned student missionaries will share their experiences through music, stories, costumes, and pictures.
University Church, Sanctuary

After Apple Fest
Come for good fellowship, fresh-pressed apple cider, and tasty homemade apple crisp.
Outside the University Church if weather permits, or Fellowship Hall if inclement weather

After Missions Fair
Visit booths featuring photographs and souvenirs from countries where student missionaries have served or are presently serving. Encourage a current student missionary by sending a note and visit with returned students.
University Church, Foyer

Sabbath, October 21

9:30 am FirstServe
Start Sabbath early at this informal setting with praise songs from the worship band and the spoken word. “Ask. Anything, Season 2” Alex Bryan, speaker.
University Church, Sanctuary

10:30 am Community Builders
Check the church bulletin for more information or online at www.wwuchurch.com/bulletin

10:30 am Growing in Faith at Walla Walla University
Come and listen to leaders from the WWU Chaplain’s Office, University Church, and the WWU
School of Theology talk about the opportunities for faith development for students at WWU, and walk away with some suggestions/tools to deepen your own walk with Christ.
ADM 116

11:45 am The Second Service
Experience our traditional worship service with the spoken word, University Singers, and the WWU
University Church, Sanctuary
1:00 pm  Sabbath Lunch
Parents and students are invited to join John and Pam McVay and WWU administrators for a complimentary family dinner and photos.
Winter Educational Complex, Alumni Gymnasium

2:00 – 5:00 pm  Havstad Alumni Center
WWU’s alumni center will be open as a gathering/living room space for families and connecting.

3:00 – 5:00 pm  “More Bridges, No Walls”
A look at a contemporary understanding and enhancing of relationships in and out of the family.
Quickly paced and interactive.
Loren Dickinson, professor emeritus of communications
CSP 154

5:00 pm  Evensong
Close the Sabbath with a program of sacred music and the spoken word.
University Church, Sanctuary

7:30 pm  ATTFSCDTYDKA
Attend this entertaining “talent” event provided by your favorite faculty and staff (and learn what this acronym stands for!). Seating is limited. Jon Nickell and Scott Rae, emcees
Village Hall

Sunday, October 22

9:00 am  AGA Breast Cancer 5k Run
Positive Life Radio parking lot, west side of CTC
Visit wallawalla.edu/aga for more information.

WEEKEND ART GALLERY HOURS:
Friday  1-4pm
Sabbath  Afternoon

WEEKEND BOOKSTORE HOURS:
Friday  8:30 a.m. – 4 p.m.
University apparel is sold at the University Bookstore, along with textbooks and school supplies.

WEEKEND CAFETERIA HOURS:
Friday  Breakfast 7 - 10am
       Lunch 11am - 2pm
       Dinner 5 - 7pm
Sabbath  Brunch 10:30am - 2pm
         Dinner 5 - 7pm

Sunday  Brunch 10:30am – 2pm
         Dinner 5 - 7pm