College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

General Information:

Walla Walla University students who have completed more than 45 credit hours may NOT CLEP a course. Call Academic Records to verify the status of the student.

- WWU provides computerized CLEP testing services to all students as well as nonstudents.
- CLEP tests can also be done online with a remote proctor.
- Candidates must show one form of identification, must have photo and signature.
- CLEP tests accepted for credit by Walla Walla University are listed in the WWU bulletin. CLEP tests that are not listed in the bulletin can be petitioned upon request.
- It is the policy of Walla Walla University that CLEP tests may not be retaken. If a student does poorly, they must take the class. The only other option is to petition the Academic Standards Committee.
- The test is taken by appointment in our office.
