Job Title
Marketing Internship for Entrepreneurial Spirited Candidate - Remote Position

Job Summary
Are you passionate about helping others, but don’t know how? Here is your opportunity to empower and inspire others (and YOURSELF) to become their best self, their authentic self...their infinite self. We are an online enterprise in the personal growth & development industry seeking an enthusiastic creative candidate with an entrepreneurial spirit who wants to join a personal and professional growth-oriented community.

As a Marketing Intern, you will collaborate with, and assist the co-founders in daily marketing and administrative tasks, as well as share YOUR creative ideas to help develop and expand our marketing strategies, product line, and THIS position. This is your time to shine!

Responsibilities and Duties
- Assist in marketing and advertising promotional activities (e.g. social media, direct email and web)
- Collect quantitative and qualitative data from marketing campaigns
- Support the team in daily administrative tasks like file organization
- Have Fun!

Qualifications and Skills
Qualifications: You are the right candidate for this position if you have a desire to live your best life, a passion to teach others how to live their best life, love to learn, teach, and share. You thrive on growth, change and challenges and are willing to share your thoughts and ideas with the team. You can lead AND follow.

Skills:
- You know your way around social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, etc.
- You have administrative skills like organizing files in Google Drive and being able to schedule events in Google Calendar
- You know your way around apps, software, and internet

This is an unpaid internship TO START. We anticipate that lasting ONLY 30 to 60 days. At which time, you can choose to become an Independent Contractor. Our intent is to start building our team in early 2020. It would be great if you choose to be a part of that. This is a remote position with communication done via email, phone, Zoom, etc. F2F meetings can occur if needed. There are no set hours, as long as you are efficient, effective and complete your work within the deadlines agreed upon.

To apply, surprise me. My email is tamey@infinitehumaninstitute.com. My mobile is 509-421-4750. My social media includes Facebook, Instagram and LinkedIn. You can send me a resume, an audio, a video...you are applying for a creative position. Show me your creativity. You can relate it to what makes you a good fit for our team, or a course you would like to see published, or how to feed an elephant. Who is your best...authentic...infinite self?
