Walla Walla University Flight Instructor

Flight/Ground Instructor candidates must:

- Possess an FAA Certified Instrument Instructor rating (CFII).
- At a minimum, hold a Third Class Medical Certificate
- Be current as per FAA regulations
- Behave professionally and be a positive example to students
- Have a positive attitude and reflect positively on WWU and the Aviation Program
- Have a willingness to be flexible with students and aviation faculty
- Be attentive to detail
- Provide flight or ground instruction as assigned by the flight directors, in accordance with the flight curriculum
- Comply with Walla Walla University procedures & regulations
- Maintain student’s record folder and training course outline after each lesson
- Attend CFI meetings as scheduled by the Chief Flight Director
- Work with the Aviation faculty to maintain a professional, Christian environment for students

Pay $25-$35 per hour depending on experience and flight interview

Contact: Matthew Toelke, Director of Aviation, Matthew.Toelke@wallawalla.edu or 509-520-7396