Financial Aid: Students who need assistance with their summer quarter may apply for financial aid. Loans may be available such as Federal Direct Loans, Nursing Loans, Private Loans, or a PLUS Loan if the student is a dependent student.

Financial Aid Deadline: The 2019-20 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the summer term should be submitted by April 1, 2020. Walla Walla University’s Undergraduate Financial Aid Application (FAA) should be at WWU’s Student Financial Services office by April 1, too, in order for the financial aid to be awarded by registration time. Only aid that has already been awarded by registration time may be deducted from the estimated costs. Students who submit applications, corrections, or other required information less than 2 weeks before the start of classes may encounter delays at registration unless they can cover the quarter’s expenses without financial aid assistance. The WWU Undergraduate Financial Aid Application (FAA) should be completed online at sfs.wallawalla.edu/financial-aid. The FAFSA is online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Note: This FAFSA and WWU FAA are different than the ones needed for fall quarter aid. Fall’s applications for the 2020-21 school year are due by April 30, 2020 for maximum financial aid consideration.

Deposit: A $300 non-refundable deposit is due by May 1 for all accepted students to hold their place in the nursing program. This deposit will be applied against the summer tuition charges when the student enrolls. Students accepted after May 1 should make this deposit when their acceptance letter is received. The check should be payable to Walla Walla University and sent to the Accounting Office at the above address. Include the student name and social security number to insure proper credit. Online payments via credit/debit cards or e-check may be made at: www.wallawalla.edu/payment. Simply select the “Make a Payment” option. On the next page that comes up, enter the student’s ID number and last name, then click the “Next” button. The 8th option down is the $300 Nursing Deposit. You may also want to pay the 7th option down, the $175 Dorm Deposit—if the student will be living in the dorm. Credit cards will be charged a 2.25% convenience fees. Payments made by E-check or Debit cards are not charged a fee.

Payment Plans:

1. Regular Payment Plan: Payment in full (plus any previous balance) will be due by 4 pm the Wednesday before the first day of classes.
2. Monthly Payment Plan: The quarter’s expenses, less any awarded financial aid, are divided into three equal payments. The first payment, plus any previous balance, is due by 4 pm the Wednesday before the first day of classes. The second and third payments are due the following months on the 25th of each month. Finance charges will accrue on the unpaid balance. This payment plan is available only for US and Canadian residents. All other students must use the Regular Payment Plan.

Note: Students who are on the waiting list or waiting for a letter of acceptance should still complete the financial aid applications. Awarding of financial aid does not constitute acceptance into Walla Walla University. However, if a student is accepted and moves off the waiting list at the last moment, it is in the student’s interest to have the financial aid applications completed.
