Walla Walla University Student Employment resources are provided free of charge as a courtesy to employers and to student job seekers. All hiring and compensation for work performed by student employees is handled directly between the student and the employer. The Student Employment Office does not perform background checks on students applying for jobs, nor on employers posting job opportunities. Employers and students are encouraged to request reference information from each other as needed to establish qualifications, credentials and overall fit between the employer and the student applicant.

All job listings are posted at the discretion of the Student Employment Office. We will not post jobs that appear to discriminate against applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, age, national origin, disability, marital status or gender. The Student Employment Office also reserves the right to refuse to post jobs that do not support the interests of the University.

The WWU Student Employment Office makes no recommendations regarding employers. We make no representations or guarantees about positions posted by this office. We are not responsible for safety, wages, working conditions, or any other aspect of off-campus employment. Students are urged to perform due diligence in researching employers when applying for or accepting private off-campus employment. Student Employment staff members are available for consultation on how to research prospective employers.

Your use of the WWU Off-Campus Job Posting resources constitutes your acceptance of the above disclaimer and your agreement to be bound by it. For additional information regarding this disclaimer, contact the WWU Student Employment Office.
