The Walla Walla YMCA is dedicated to the values of Caring, Honesty, Respect, and Responsibility and committed to building a community where all people, especially the young, are encouraged to develop their fullest potential in spirit, mind, and body.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Brady Svilich
Associate Executive Director
509-525-8863

(509) 525-8863 · 340 South Park St, Walla Walla, WA 99362
Fort Walla Walla Museum

Fort Walla Walla Museum provides educational experiences. The Museum features a historic pioneer settlement, gardens, and sprawling exhibit halls housing thousands of artifacts. The Entrance Building and Galleries feature dynamic exhibits and artifacts. There are special programs and events held on the Museum grounds year round.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

A few Options!
- Greeting visitors
- Giving tours
- Assisting in the Museum Store
- Taking photographs
- Conducting research projects
- Joining the Oregon Trail Band
- Developing school activities and other programs
- Helping to develop, build, and install exhibits
- Cataloging artifacts, books, and historic photos
- Assisting with clerical duties or as a receptionist
- Maintaining Museum grounds and buildings
- Assisting archaeology projects
- Helping with sewing and quilting projects
- Helping with Living History Company program
- Helping out at events

Laura Schulz
(509) 525-7703
laura@fwwm.org

(509) 525-7703 · 755 Myra Road, Walla Walla, WA 99324
ArtWalla

ArtWalla is here to support the arts and to make the community a better place through cultural opportunities.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Help clean public art sculptures
Events: Kids Activity

Special skills required or desired:
Love of arts

Greer Buchanan · gg.buchanan@gmail.com
Tricia Harding · (503) 519-3812 · tbirdharding@gmail.com
Blue Mountain Therapeutic Riding is a non profit corporation that is serving Walla Walla, Milton Freewater, and surrounding areas. We use equine-assisted activities and therapies to make a difference for people in the community with disabilities. Therapy is provided by our gentle horses and facilitated by instructors and community volunteers.

Level of Commitment: Flexible

No experience needed, we train onsite. Volunteers help with grooming, training, and riding the horses. Website assistance also needed. Volunteer can come once or stay for a six week session. We are hoping for a six week commitment, 3 six week sessions are run each year.

Ron Murphy
papasmurfy57@hotmail.com
509-540-6244
Kooskoskie Commons

To involve people in natural resources in the landscape they inhabit through storytelling, experiential education, collaborative conversations, celebrations, and the arts.

Individuals who can come on a regular basis, help on occasion, or contribute once to a big project.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Volunteer Opportunities
Stream riparian and wetland restoration: including stream clean-up removing blackberries and other non-native vegetation, and planting native plants
GIS mapping and monitoring; writing stories; organization and outreach for environmental films

www.kooskooskie-commons.org

Required Skills
Passion for healthy streams and interesting stories.

Skills Learned
Gain knowledge about outreach strategies, environmental films, and properly functioning streams, wetlands, and native plants.

Training
Volunteers are usually instructed when they show up for restoration projects. Other opportunities involve regular meetings and trainings.
The Humane Society needs volunteers to work with animals and people! Volunteers needed about once a month or so to help with a kids event. Or work with the animals on a weekly or monthly basis. In order to volunteer with the animals you must take a short one-time class.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Minimum Commitment:
- Working with animals: 1 hour a month in an area of your choosing, and one hour of cleaning for at least 3 months. No maximum!
- Helping with a kids event; can be a one time commitment.

Trainings:
1st Thursday of every month at 5
Dog track, cat track

Linda Solis
Volunteer Coordinator
509-525-2452
Volunteer@bluemountainhumane.org

509-525-2452: 7 George St, Walla Walla, WA 99362
As a non-profit hospital, we rely on the service of volunteers to provide our patients and visitors with compassionate service and a personal touch—to know patients, to care for patients and to ease their way. Providence offers many diverse volunteer opportunities involving patient contact, clerical, retail and spiritual care.

Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Areas of Service

Comfort Rounding: offering comfort items to patients, visiting patients.
Family Birth Center: assist with newborn care and provide comfort services
Liason between departments

gift shop, cancer center, information desk, escort/errand, medical records, spiritual care, greeters, cancer resource center, cardiac rehab, pet therapy

Application Process

Volunteer Application
Background check forms
Short Interview/Turn in paperwork
TB Test
Orientation / Training

Patti Lennartson
Volunteer Services Coordinator
509-897-2072
Patti.Lennartson@providence.org
Level of Commitment: varies based on project

Volunteer Coordinator
The food bank director is seeking someone to help him organize volunteers, create volunteer 'positions' and recruit. He will need more volunteers as he gets the new Backpack Program (weekend meals for students on free/reduced lunch) running. He could use some help doing data entry with food donations and distributions.

Jeff Mathias
jeffm@bmacww.org
509-529-3561

Food Sorting Lead
Requesting someone to help lead small groups in food sorting. Early fall is a great time to learn the ropes, as big food drives start up in October and continue through the winter, and require a lot of help with sorting the donated food.

Jeff Mathias
jeffm@bmacww.org
509-529-3561

Gleaning Fresh Produce
Student volunteers work together with community volunteers to glean fresh produce from gardens, farms, orchards, and backyard fruit trees to share with the Food Bank. Volunteers sign up to be on the email list, where they receive notices of all gleaning opportunities. They can then sign up for a glean when they are available to do it.

whitmanglean@gmail.com
(509) 416-6622

CSFP and the Mobile Food Bank
CSFP distributions are the 3rd Thursday every month. Volunteers needed to help sort, box, and hand out food to roughly 300 seniors. Mobile Food Banks occur mornings every 1 to 2 months (usually Spring through Fall) and also need help distributing food. Both great opportunities to get a feel for the food bank and its volunteer needs without a lot of commitment.

Jeff Mathias
jeffm@bmacww.org
509-529-3561

(509) 529-4980 ∙ 1520 Kelly Pl #140, Walla Walla, WA 99362